PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

9F Inc. (the "Company") is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 (the "Form 20-F") by June 14, 2020 (the "Prescribed Filing Date") because U.S. GAAP audited financial statements of the Company are not yet available. The Company anticipates that it will file the Form 20-F no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the Prescribed Filing Date.

(Telephone Number)

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates that there will be significant changes in results of operations between 2018 and 2019 as a result of the dispute and legal proceedings with PICC Property and Casualty Company Limited Guangdong Branch (the "PICC"). In 2019, under the direct lending program of the Company, PICC is obligated to pay service fees as agreed in the cooperation agreement, as amended (the "Cooperation Agreement") to Jiufu Shuke Technology Group Co., Ltd., a variable interest entity of the Company (the "Jiufu Shuke") for its services. PICC paid a portion of service fees, but has failed to fulfil its remaining payment obligations for the rest of the service fees amounting to approximately RMB2.2 billion for a period covered under the Cooperation Agreement (the "Outstanding Service Fees"). With respect to RMB1.4 billion of the Outstanding Service Fees that has been recorded as accounts receivable, the Company has recognized full valuation allowance. The Company has not recognized the remaining Outstanding Service Fees in the amount of approximately RMB0.8 billion, as revenue recognition criteria was not met. The dispute with PICC has materially and adversely affected the Company's results of operations and financial condition in 2019.

Forward-Looking Statements

This notification includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The word "expects," "anticipates" and similar terms and phrases are used in this notification to identify forward-looking statements. Risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could affect the Company's forward-looking statements include, among other things, any changes to our anticipated financial results as a result of our independent registered public accounting firm completing its audit of the Company's financial statements, the ability of us and our auditors to confirm information or data identified in the review, our ability to complete and file future periodic filings with the SEC on a timely basis and other risks and uncertainties discussed more fully in the Company's filings with the SEC. Unless required by law, the Company expressly disclaims any obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
