9F Inc. Enters into a Binding Term Sheet with Potential Investors

This current report on Form 6-K was submitted in connection with a binding term sheet 9F Inc. (the “Company”) entered into with two established Asian investors on June 7, 2021. Pursuant to the term sheet, the potential investors have agreed to negotiate and potentially enter into definitive agreements with the Company for the subscription of newly issued class A ordinary shares of the Company in a private placement transaction. The potential transaction has an aggregate investment amount of approximately US$60 million, and the Company plans to use the proceeds from the potential transaction for investments in licensed internet securities service companies and applications for securities service licenses and digital assets management licenses in Singapore and in the United States. The completion of the potential transaction is subject to the parties’ execution of definitive agreements and customary closing conditions to be stipulated therein.

“The potential investors have rich experience in both investments in internet companies and overseas securities investment and asset management services, and have in-depth insight into the relevant industries. By integrating resources and offering their expertise, they can help us better develop our internet securities and digital asset management businesses, and provide users with excellent digital brokerage service,” said Mr. Lei Liu, Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Safe Harbor Statement

This Form 6-K contains forward-looking statements. These statements constitute “forward-looking” statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as “will,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “future,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “estimates,” “target,” “confident” and similar statements. Such statements are based upon management’s current expectations and current market, regulatory and operating conditions and relate to events that involve known or unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the Company’s control. Forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any such statements. Potential risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, uncertainties as to the Company’s ability to attract and retain borrowers and investors on its marketplace, its ability to increase volume of loans facilitated through the Company’s marketplace, its ability to introduce new loan products and platform enhancements, its ability to compete effectively, laws, regulations and governmental policies relating to the online consumer finance industry in China, general economic conditions in China, and the Company’s ability to meet the standards necessary to maintain listing of its ADSs on the Nasdaq, including its ability to cure any non-compliance with the Nasdaq’s continued listing criteria. Further information regarding these and other risks, uncertainties or factors is included in the Company’s filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. All information provided in this Form 6-K is as of the date of this Form 6-K, and 9F Inc. does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required under applicable law.
